

ADVANTEK

We are an innovative technology company focusing on creating engineering solutions for our customers. Our goal is to help our customers to get best quality, save time and money by building efficient and innovative engineering solutions.

From our founding in 2008 until today, Advantek Group, has grown into a strong supplier of technology services to key industry combines across Europe.

We are strongly present in the development we are witnessing throughout the industry today, connected to Automation and Digitalization. At the same time, we have managed to keep up the activity within our other key technical fields, such as Electro, Process, Mechanical, CAD and Multidiscipline Analysis.

Automation / Commissioning Engineer

Job Description

Advantek is looking for Automation Engineers to work in Portugal (Porto) and abroad.

Work Tasks / Responsibilities:

- Development of control systems
- Implementation of software according to company requirements and guidelines
- Concept design and development
- Planning and managing deliveries within PLC and HMI
- Quality Control, Testing and Verification
- Project and end user documentation
- Communicating across disciplines
- English is mandatory.

Requirements

- College / University Degree within Automation
- Experience with the development of control systems
- Competence from PLC systems (Siemens TIA Portal)

Benefits

- Professional development
- Exciting project
- Competitive salary and benefits

For more information, please send an email to susana@advantek.no

www.advantekgroup.com